

IHOD

Funded by the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Improving Healthcare Outcomes in Chronic Disease Enhancing the Curriculum at Masters Level

Notes on Intensive week in Pavia 12th to 18th March 2018

Opening session - (Tuesday a.m.)

Rectorate Meeting opened at 11.30 after a tour of the historical part of the University and a visit to the University's Museum.

Welcome given by Vice-Chancellor for Didactics, Professor Stefano Govoni from the Delegate and International Office.

Followed by Vice-Chancellor for International Relations, Professor Ilaria Poggiolini and Lombardy Region representative, Mr. Maurizio Bersani.

Second Session - (Tuesday p.m.)

The session started at 14.00 by a talk given by Professor Belloni, OMCEO on "Prescriptive appropriateness, adherence and persistence and economic sustainability of pharmaceutical spending in the management of critical staff".

The session ended at 18.00 and was followed by the project dinner.

Third Session - (Wednesday a.m.)

Visit at 9.30 to KiroLab, Meeting with Department of Pharmacy and Department of Psychology.

Fourth Session - (Wednesday p.m.)

The session started at 14.00 with a presentation by Ms. Elena Caldirola, Head of Innovation in Didactics and Digital Communication on digital training: "Interactive and remote teaching simulation and information on supported teaching methods".

The session concluded with a lecture on Chronic Pain by ARU Telemedicine Deputy Dean, Professor Patricia Schofield.

Project coordinator: Dr Mary Casey, UCD School of Nursing, Midwifery & Health Systems, Belfield, Dublin 4, Ireland.
In-country Project manager: David Campbell, erasmusihod@gmail.com +79164172166

IHOD

Funded by the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Improving Healthcare Outcomes in Chronic Disease Enhancing the Curriculum at Masters Level

Fifth Session - (Thursday a.m.)

The session started at 9.30 in Maugeri Hospital and made with a succession of presentations on chronic pathologies with discussions with the following teachers: Pedretti (Rehabilitation Cardiology), Nardone (Neurorehabilitation), Magri (Metabolic Syndrome), Torreggiani (Chronic Kidney Disease), Esposito (Dialysis).

Sixth Session - (Thursday p.m.)

The session started at 14.00

Visit to the Maugeri Hospital's departments.

Seventh Session - (Friday a.m.)

The session opened at 9.30 with a visit to the CNAO Foundation - The National Centre for Oncological Hadrontherapy.

It was then followed by a talk given by Dr. Monica Necchi, Professor of Physics on "Physics applied to Medicine" and a talk by Dr. Angelica Facchetti, Radio-Biologist on "The clinical activity of the CNAO".

Closing Session - (Friday p.m.)

The meeting concluded at 15.00 with a highlight of the upcoming Dublin study tour by Professor Mary Casey and a vote of thanks to the Pavia University for providing good facilities and to Giovanni Ricevuti, Ciro Esposito and other staff who ensured a well arranged visit.

